

The Indian EXPRESS, Wednesday, August 15, 2007

Three Books on homoeopathic research released

Express New Service
AUGUST 14

THREE books on Homoeopathy, written by Dr. Amarsinh Nikam of Pimpri, were released at a function held at Balgandharva Rangmandir recently. Dr. D.U.Patil, chancellor of Dr. D.Y.Patil University, released the books – ‘Homoeopathic Hospital? Yes!’, ‘Research in Thermal Materia Medica’ and ‘The New Research in Manifestation of Miasm’.

Addressing the crowd, Dr. Nikam said his books would be of immense use to the medical fraternity as well as the student community. “The books have been written after a vast research which stretches to over two decades. My experience of treating patients who came to me in deteriorating health condition and how they recovered fully has been included in detail,” said Dr. Nikam who has so far written five books, four of which are on homoeopathy. Dr. Shivajirao Kadam, pro vice chancellor, Bharati Vidyapeeth, said his university would extend all possible help to Dr. Nikam to carry out further research in the field of homoeopathic medicine. He said his books have been written in simple language and could be understood easily even by the layman.

Pimpri-Chinchwad mayor Vaishali Ghodekar, Municipal Commissioner Dilip Band and Dr. Arun Jadhav, Principal of Bharati Vidyapeeth Homoeopathic Medical College were among those present.

Gajanan Ambade compered the function while Arun Paigude proposed a vote of thanks.